

THE MAP

THE RIDICULOUSLY SIMPLE
MAP OF MANIFESTATION THAT WILL LEAVE YOU SPEECHLESS.

ALAIN DAGBA

Introduction

The Angel Said To Me:

“You will start writing in a different way. It’s the new way of writing that the world will soon begin to apply—especially spiritual authors and writers.”

I Asked:

“What is this new way?”

The Angels Replied:

“INSTANT BOOKS. They will be short insights channeled by your soul. This is the new way of communicating to the new human race that is emerging. This way of writing will speed up the INSTANTaneous evolution of the human consciousness above the advancement of technology. So that what humans create does not become a handicap to their ascension into the light of TRUTH or absolute LOVE.

SOMEONE ONCE ASKED ME:

“How Do You Know It’s The Voice Of The Angels and God You Are Hearing, That All These Messages Are Not Just Coming From Your Own Brain?”

I REPLIED:

“If my brain could be this wise and intelligence to speak with so much clarity and neuropathway-rewiring ability and power, then my brain is God.

The brain speaks the language of the past. The brain speaks what it is familiar with. It speaks from an information that has been previously given to it.

The brain speaks from the past. It cannot think anything beyond the past. That’s how I know even my brain needs this higher intuitive divine wisdom.”

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE VERY FIRST STEP TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

What you want must become a clear and a precise thought. The clear and precise thought must become an image. The image must become animated by you involving your imaginary senses into it. This first step is called dreaming.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE SECOND STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

The dream must become flesh. You must dream the dream you created in the first step everyday right before bed and right upon awake by totally relaxing your body. You must do this for 44 days straight. The dream will become your brain's neuropathways or flesh. This step is called incarnation.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE THIRD STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

Once the dream becomes your brain, the brain will begin to produce chemicals or hormones to support the dream. These chemicals or hormones will become your default emotional energies. This step is called transmutation.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE FOURTH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

Once your dream is transmuted from thoughts and images into emotional default energies or feelings, you must begin to daydream yourself enjoying what you desire at least three times a day. This will move the dream in its feeling-nature from your heart into your aura through your brainwaves and body pores. This step is called emoting.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE FIFTH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

Once the dream in its feeling-nature moves into your aura or biofield, it changes name and becomes more potent. It is now called a vibration or a vibe. You have turned yourself into a talisman for what you want. You have become the prayer. You are wearing your dream as a garment or energy-clothe.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE SIXTH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

Now, you must begin to write a gratitude message to God or your Higher Self for having made your dream come true. Write it in present tense. Write it daily. Read it back to yourself. Write it once a day. Then, the dream will transform itself from being a vibration to become a frequency or an electromagnetic substance.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE SEVENTH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

Once the dream becomes a frequency, it moves out of your aura into the atmosphere or the universe. The dream can now be picked up as a signal by other humans subconsciously, and by Angels and invisible beings. The dream has become a message, or a seed planted in the womb of the cosmos. It must germinate.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE EIGHTH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

The dream in its feeling-nature will begin to move you to take inspired and peaceful actions that will lead you to places or connect you to people who will be participating in the formation of your dream as a reality.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE NINETH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

Once the dream in its frequency-nature penetrates the atmosphere, five laws are activated: The law of cause and effect, the law of attraction, the law of sowing and reaping, the law of synchronicity, and the law of serendipity. All five laws are called the law of manifestation or the UNIVERSE itself.

I ASKED MY HIGHER SELF
WHAT IS THE TENTH STEP
TO MANIFEST WHAT I WANT?

The law of manifestation will distribute the frequency to other humans and invisible beings telepathically according to the nature of the dream. Either good or evil. Then, these humans will be moved subconsciously through the reticular activating system of their brain to make decisions and choices that will create the circumstances and events for your dream and their dreams to become a reality.

FROM THE AUTHOR

I recommend you read these 10 steps again and again and do them.

They have changed me and my wife and our children's lives.

I will also recommend that you create a dream that encompasses the four pillars of life: Self, Health, Relationships, and Wealth. If you need to learn how to create a dream that encompasses all aspects of life, follow the steps in my book: MANIFESTAMENT.

Much Love,
